Agenda Items	Major Discussion Points	Recommendations	Action steps and responsible persons
Introductions and review of minutes	The last sentence under faith-based organizations on page two will now read, This group can partner with Duke as part of a pilot program. The information about partnering with Duke was previously left out.		Marissa will make the correction and send the revised April minutes to Cindy.
Subcommittee's Breakout <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Faith Based • Resources • Naloxone Awareness • Suicide Prevention 	Committee members divided into workgroups to discuss next steps and moving forward with action plan items. Yancee Perez has been using the public health provider resource list former co-chair Irene Dwinnell's intern put together in May 2015. Yancee sent the spreadsheet to the Director of Consumer Affairs at Alliance. The next step will be to send further information to the Director of Provider Networks.
Subcommittee Updates	Suicide Prevention- The work group met on May 17. They are currently focusing on the LGBTQ community. The workgroup has developed a provider survey to assess whether providers are comfortable working with the LGBTQ population, if they have needs around training and additional resources for patients who identify as LGBTQ or have resources to share with other providers. Information on providers and services who identify as LGBTQ friendly will be shared with the LGBTQ Center of Durham.	It was suggested sharing naloxone information with the NC Women's Commission. It was suggested to speak at the five PAC meetings in Durham about working with local churches.	Liz will share the survey with committee members for feedback. Edits are needed by June 1. The committee will help support a Mt. Vernon event on June 16 and a St.

	Next steps are to finalize the survey and distribute to Duke and Alliance Behavioral Healthcare providers. Faith-Based- Jason has started talking to several churches in Durham around their needs around substance use and mental health. Mt. Vernon Church is interested in doing something on June 16. Jason will follow up to see what Mt. Vernon would like to do on June 16 and what the event would look like. Kimberly offered to have providers come out of the hospital and have conversations with the community. Next steps include a radio talk show for a contact Kimberly has. The person with the radio show is open to having individuals and organizations on the show to speak about their services and resources. There is a health fair in August at St. James. Naloxone- Cindy and Wanda have been talking about putting naloxone information on social media. Durham T.R.Y. students are making a presentation to school board members to educate about the availability of naloxone kits. The workgroup will give information on naloxone to the community through partners. Naloxone will be discussed at the Durham City Council meeting on May 23.		James health fair in August.
Announcements	The Durham County Department of Public Health and the Durham Coalition on Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention are holding a teen summit about sexual reproductive health this Saturday, 10a-4p at North Carolina Central University. Sessions for teens and parents available.
Voting for Co-chairs	Cindy Haynes and Wanda Boone accepted the nomination of committee co-chairs for the July 1, 2016-June 30, 2017 term. Wanda stated that she would like to be co-chair to represent SU/MH and its goals and not Durham TRY's. Nancy Kneepkens will be TRY's representative on the SU/MH committee.
