

Partnership for a Healthy Durham
Health and Housing (H&H) Committee Meeting Zoom
Tuesday, March 21, 2023
Minutes

Present: Charlene Reiss, Bria Miller, Don Bradley, Caressa Harding, Manuel Hyman, Charlene Harris, Melva Henry (City of Durham), Marshall Jones (nurse and student Duke), Debbie Royster, Brian Goings, Shelisa Howard-Martinez (Aging Well Durham)
Topic	Major Discussion	Recommendations and Action Steps
Welcome/ Introductions/ Icebreaker Brian Goings 8:30-8:40	What are you looking forward to in the spring?
Review February Minutes & Updates All 8:40-8:45	The minutes were approved. Announcements: Duke is hosting a Community Health Worker (CHW) symposium. This will address what CHWs have experienced over COVID-19 and imagine what can be improved to better support CHWs. Email Brian Goings if interested.
Listening Session Questions Review Bria Miller 8:45-9:15	Participants reviewed the questions asked in 2021. These were shared to give examples of questions we can ask. The questions for the listening sessions this year should be related to the Community Health Improvement Plans. After conversations, the list of questions are as follows. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. If you had a friend/knew someone moving to Durham, how would you help them find a place to live? 2. What are the most important things you consider when finding a place to live? 3. How does where you live make you feel? 4. How does having money or not having money impact or influence this situation? Melva would like to include crime and how that impacts health with housing. There is a new organization called HEART that responds to crises and other	Use flyers to recruit listening session participants. Caressa Harding, Melva Henry, Debbie Royster, and Charlene Harris will help to distribute flyers.

Partnership for a Healthy Durham
Health and Housing (H&H) Committee Meeting Zoom
Tuesday, March 21, 2023
Minutes

	emergencies not appropriate for law enforcement response. The next HEART meeting is April 17 th and Shelisa could invite the Health and Housing committee to the meeting.
Next Meeting: April 18, 2023 at 8:30 AM

